Dear Parents

How can it be July already! To be honest, it still feels like we are waiting to pick up from where we left off in March! It is just a short update from me this week.

At this point we are still awaiting guidance from the Government regarding the September return for all children. I have heard that it is due today. Once we receive the guidance we will work hard to put a new risk assessment and plans in place. We will share these with you once they have been agreed by our Governing Body. Thank you in advance for your patience.

You should have received a letter from your child's new class teacher yesterday, I do hope they were well received by the children. We are also working on a video message from the teachers for their current class and their new class.

Can I please remind parents that are dropping off and collecting their children to follow social distancing guidelines and keep moving around the one-way system. Thank you for helping us to keep everyone safe. Can I also remind parents that if you have decided to send your eligible child back to school, then they should be attending full time and the usual rules regarding absence and attendance still apply.

Please do not forget to email your Virtual Sports Day photos to us. Well done to Austin, Amelia, Louis and Maxwell for getting us started!

I have a staffing update to share with you. Miss Holloway, one of our teaching assistants, will be leaving us at the end of term. Miss Holloway is about to start a new and exciting adventure as a trainee teacher. I am sure you will join the team as we wish Miss Holloway all the very best with her new career path. We will miss you Miss Holloway!

If you have any questions or you need additional support at home, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Stay safe

Puccio
